W-9 Certification: The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provisions of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholdings.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that 1. The number shown on the form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholdings, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) The IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholdings, and 3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

CERTIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS: You must cross out item (2) above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest or dividends on your tax return. For mortgage interest paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement account (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.

IMPORTANT: Federal law requires that an insurance company send a 1099 form to all customers receiving over $600 of total interest in a calendar year. For additional information regarding these interest payments, you should consult your tax advisor.
